

Dear friends

For this God is our God for ever and ever; He will be our guide even to the end. Psalm 48:14

Welcome to our Spring Newsletter. As we look out on the gardens, hedges and trees; we see new leaves and blossoms all around us and rejoice in the beauty of God's creation.

The Coronation was spectacular. These grand ceremonial events are one of the things we British do rather well.

Once again our residents have enjoyed a number of events involving food and fellowship.

We are encouraged to see more people attending the Bible study and Sunday Evening Services in the Hall. We trust these may be a blessing to all who gather.

The Trustees wish to extend a welcome to new residents and hope you will enjoy life at Quebec Hall.

King Charles' Coronation

Our residents, some visitors and staff, came together to watch King Charles' Coronation on Saturday morning 6th May in the downstairs lounge.

We all very much enjoyed the lavish spectacle during the morning and afternoon and our residents celebrated further with a High Tea in the afternoon. Thank you to all the staff who worked so hard to make the day enjoyable for all of our residents.

WHAT'S BEEN HAPPENING...

Johanne's Supper Club Meal – no. 1

We enjoyed our first event of the year, an evening meal under the banner of "Johanne's Supper Club Meals", Johanne being our supervisor in the kitchen.

The Supper Club was attended by 18 folk with a mixture of Hall and Bungalow residents. It was a great time of sharing over a meal and was enjoyed by all. The food was a great success and all who were there said they were looking forward to the next one. Our thanks go to Johanne, Karen and Carol.

Quiz Night with Fish & Chips

Our first quiz night of the year was held on Friday 24th March at 5pm and was well attended.

Our fish & chips were cooked on site with a fish & chip van outside the Hall. The winners were Godfrey's Team. As you can see from the photos, all who attended had a great evening.

Johanne's Supper Club Meal – no. 2

Our second Supper Club Meal, superbly put together by Johanne, was held on Friday 28th April.

We enjoyed another delicious meal and the evening was again very well attended. Our thanks to Johanne, Karen and Carol.

STAFF NEWS...

Alison returns to Quebec Hall

We are pleased that Alison Boyce has decided to return to the staff team after having retired in May last year.

Alison had worked for Quebec Hall over 20 years and has taken a part time caring position.

We pray she continues to enjoy her time working at Quebec Hall.
